Testimonial from Elizabeth Clarke,

My New Year's Resolution was finally to do something about creating my corporate website. I had been procrastinating over the event for quite some time as I found the prospect quite daunting. I needn't have worried as Aaron Vegh and his website-in-a-day was the perfect solution.

I found Aaron to be professional, personable, creative as well as methodical. He immediately related to the corporate identity I wished to convey on the site and set to the task of making it into a visual reality. He was bang on the mark. His suggestions were pointed and excellent and the whole experience was relaxed and jovial. I would not hesitate to recommend Innovegitive to anyone contemplating a corporate website. Excellent value for an excellent service. I know you'll do well, Aaron. I look forward to working with you in the future.
